- Calendar of Events

Chartered in 2003, Tau Eta Zeta Chapter is elated to be celebrating its 5th year as a pivotal force in improving Baltimore City. Since its chartering the chapter has grown from 14 members to well over 50 driven and determined young women. Some notable accomplishments are the establishment of the Sharon K. Harvey Memorial Scholarship Foundation, Inc., the Tamara D. Harris Continuing Education Scholarship, the Archonette Book Scholarship & the establishment of a Stork’s Nest with the Baltimore Health System at St. Agnes.

Tau Eta Zeta Chapter has also received many awards & certificates on the State, Regional and National level for their zealous work in the name of Zeta. As the chapter continues to celebrate their 5th year of service, they would like to thank all that have made their success possible.

In Memory of Triumphant Past Grand Lullelia W. Harrison

Our fallen dove has taken flight,
 Into the glorious Zeta Light
 Though she will be missed, remember what's true
 God needs her more than you & I do
 Her life was so full of wonders untold
 Now the gates of glory her eyes will behold
 Her day has now ended, she finished her test
 At home with the Lord, in peace she can rest

“In Loving Memory of Past Grand Lullelia Walker Harrison”

It is with humbled hearts that members of Tau Eta Zeta Chapter remember Past Grand Lullelia W. Harrison who passed on Saturday, October 11, 2008. Her life works are too numerous to count, but she was a woman of high standards and gave unselfishly to Zeta. Born on January 24, 1913, in Houston, Texas, she was the daughter of a blacksmith & her mother was a housewife. As a child she attended Crawford Elementary School and went on to graduate at the age of 15 from Booker T. Washington High School. She went on to attend Wiley College in Marshall, Texas in the Fall of 1928 where she found Zeta. She became a member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority in 1929 and has been a long standing, hard working member ever since. She has served in many capacities with in the sorority, and has worked within the national body for more than 60 years. As the 12th National President of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., Past Grand Harrison initiated the Housing Project of 1943. It was under her administration that the Amicae auxiliary was established and the Archon came into publication.

was the oldest living Past Grand Basileus of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.

The works of Past Grand Harrison have touched not only the lives of Zetas, but of all those she has come in contact with. She will truly be missed and we will keep her family in our thoughts and prayers.

At the time of her passing, she

Community Service: Answering the Call of Zeta

The community service committee of Tau Eta Zeta Chapter is always on the move looking for new ways in which to be a greater service to the Baltimore community. Tau Eta Zeta Chapter has recently started a partnership with "A Way Home" group home for girls. This facility provides a comfortable atmosphere for young ladies from diverse backgrounds that are trying to improve themselves. The chapter provides mentoring on social, financial & educational topics to the ladies as well as donates needed items.

Currently the committee is having a drive for the ladies of "A Way Home" to collect new undergarments. If you would like to make a donation the deadline is Sunday, October 19th so please contact Katrina Debnam at kdebnam@zphib-thz.org.

The committee continues to work with Our Daily Bread and the MD Food bank, volunteering countless hours to help those in need. Helping the environment is also important to the ladies of Tau Eta Zeta Chapter as they participate in Adopt-A-Highway. This is a perfect opportunity to all of those interested to come out and serve the community with the chapter. The next Adopt-A-Highway is scheduled for Sunday, October 26th at 2:30pm at Overlea High School. For information about volunteering, please contact Celere Leonard at service@zphib-thz.org.

NPHC prepares for the 2008 Regional Conference

The Baltimore Area NPHC hosts a variety of events throughout the year. The annual picnic proved to be fun for all who were came out.

Currently the National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC) is busy finalizing plans for the NPHC Eastern Regional Conference. The conference will take place at the Marriott-Burkshire Conference Hotel in Towson Maryland from November 7-9, 2008.

There will be a public forum on Friday, November 7 at 7:30pm entitled "What Now: The State of Black America after the 2008 Election". This event will take place on the campus of Towson University in the University Union in the Potomac Lounge. All are encouraged to attend.

There will be a number of workshops and plenary sessions discussing pressing issues of today's changing world from the perspective of the Greek professional.

Friday evening from 10pm-2am there will be a Black Affair at the conference center, the cost to attend is $20. For more information about the NPHC Eastern Regional Conference, contact Simmone Wainwright at swainwright@towson.edu.

Soror Jennifer Jones, President of the NPHC & Soror Sheryl Underwood, International Grand Basileus of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.

During the Congressional Black Caucus (CBC) held in September in Washington, DC., area chapters of the NPHC hosted a joint reception to recognize members of Divine 9 organizations that also serve the CBC. The reception was attended by over 800 people and provided a platform for Greek networking and collaboration.

National Presidents of the respective NPHC organizations were present, including Zeta's own Sheryl Underwood.

Boule' 2008: Pearls & Diamonds in the Desert

The 2008 Boule' was held in "Fabulous" Las Vegas, Nevada. Sorors from all over the country and globe converged on Las Vegas to handle the business of Zeta as well as have a little fun. Tau Eta Zeta Chapter sent four delegates, Sorors Keisha Bownes, Tia Boyd, Tiffani Cutler, & Aisha Miller.

During Boule', elections were held for national officers and Sheryl Underwood was named the 23rd International Grand Basileus of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. It was also during this Boule' that Z-HOPE became an official programmatic thrust of the sorority. Z-HOPE stands for "Zetas Helping Other People Excel". Through Z-HOPE projects, chapters are able to help the communities in which they live and the global community as a whole. For more information about Z-HOPE, visit the national website at www.zphib1920.org.

Leadership Retreat: Business & Sisterly Bonding

During the month of August, Tau Eta Zeta had its' yearly Leadership Retreat. The goal was to educate members on parliamentary procedures and handling chapter business on different levels. At the event the official logo for the chapter's 5th anniversary was unveiled. Designed by none other than Tau Eta Zeta's own Soror Christina Debnam, the logo has been made into a lovely lapel pin worn by chapter members and other sorors alike.

Soror Teraleen Campbell taught a segment on committee member involvement and committee chair responsibility. The chapter Basileus, Lisa M. Hudley also gave a dynamic presentation on the State of the Chapter. Tau Eta Zeta chapter is continuing to flourish and blaze new trails in the Baltimore Community. For more information about Tau Eta Zeta Chapter, visit www.zphib-thz.org.

Youth on the Move

The Pearlettes, Amicettes & Archonettes kicked off the new Sorority Year with a Welcome Back Picnic on Saturday Sept 6th. Amicette Advisor, Soror Collazo-Dingle planned a wonderful outdoor pool party for the Amicettes & Pearlettes but due to the Hurricane the Luau had to be moved indoors. The inclement weather did not stop the fun as good times were had during the limbo contest & pass the coconut contest. The Archonettes bonded over food

& good conversation hosted at Archonette Advisor, Soror Tamara Harris' home.

Soror Vonda Holman-Carter conducted an exciting and interactive ice breaker which led to various dramatic performances by the group. Archonette Morgan Murray was voted the best dramatic performance. The days events concluded with Soror Tamara Harris sharing information about the Archonette club and the expectations for the upcoming year with the future Archonettes and parents.

*"It started out fun but if it hadn't rain, we would've had a better time."
~ Archonette Erin Smith*

Knowledge is Power and Reading is Fundamental in the pursuit of Scholarship. Keeping in line with the precepts of our great Sisterhood, the Archonettes attended the Baltimore Book Festival. Archonettes Bria Holman, Cache Ervin, Erin Smith and Tiara Williams exemplified good manners, poise and communication skills when interacting with each other as well as writers, publicist and other persons representing various authors. They were given an opportunity to meet Bernadette Stanis, known as Thelma from the sitcom "Good Times". The activity ended abruptly due to a bad rain storm; however, before leaving they were briefly able to enjoy a cooking demonstration by the world renowned Chef Martin Yang. They were very excited about being big sisters and hanging out with Amicette Carleeta Knight.

*"I liked it all. It showed a big range of African American music."
~ Archonette Kourtney Goffe*

On Saturday, September 27, 2009, the Archonette Club was afforded the opportunity to witness an auspicious performance by the GIA Group for the Dr. Nathan Carter Foundation Annual Benefit Concert. The performance was conducted as part of a 5-year plan to raise $100,000 for Music major scholarships. Archonettes Kourtney Goffe, Roneisha Green, Bria Holman and Tiara Williams received donated tickets from the Eunice Clement Sligh Foundation, Inc. The Archonettes enjoyed melodious harmonic tunes in various genres from Opera to Negro Spirituals to Gospel all penned and/or arranged by Dr. Carter. The Archonettes had different views of the performance but all had a great time and thoroughly enjoyed the experience.

For more information about the Archonettes or how to become one, visit them on the web at <http://www.zphib-thz.org/Archonettes.html>

The Fall Informational held on Sept 21st was attended by over 60 young ladies. Program participants were Pearlettes Alison Alston, Alexandra Alston, Kayla Clark; Amicettes Kamaria Dingle & Georgia Ruffin and Archonette President Tiara Williams. Archonette Advisor, Soror Vonda Holman-Carter facilitated a fun bonding activity where the nursery rhyme "Old McDonald Had a Farm" in different genres of music. The Country & Gospel genres seemed to be a big hit.

On Sunday October 19, 2008 the Youth Auxiliary will host a Baby Shower for the THZ Stork's Nest located at St. Agnes Hospital. In addition, Fall Induction will be held on October 19, 2008. We are looking to induct a record amount of new members.

The Amicettes & Archonettes look forward to a public speaking workshop given by Soror Gigi Barnett of WJZ TV in November. While the Pearlettes are gearing up to attend a December performance of the Nutcracker. As you can see the THZ Youth Auxiliary has started the year with zeal. Please support the girls as they blaze a trail of positivity, growth & community outreach.

The Amicettes would like to thank the Sorors who have supported & donated to their ongoing Loose Change drive. In addition, the Amicettes are also doing a PHONERAISER - please donate old unused phones and inkjet cartridges. The phones will be shipped off to be recycled and the Amicettes will earn money.

The Youth Advisors would like to welcome the wonderfully awesome additions of Sorors LeTonya Smith (Pearlette Advisor) & Vonda Holman-Carter (Archonette Advisor).

For more information about the youth auxiliaries please contact DaVita Alston at thz_youth@zphib-thz.org.

Socializing with our Sisters

Though Tau Eta Zeta is a very close chapter, they always find time to support other Zeta chapters as we are all working toward a common goal.

The Sorors of Tau Eta Zeta Chapter continues demonstrating Sisterhood by supporting Alpha Zeta Chapter as they celebrated their 85th Chapter Anniversary on Saturday, September 20, 2008. Sorors Lisa Hudley (President), Tamara Harris, Cheryl Harrison-Murray, Vonda Holman-Carter, Yolanda Jackson, Theresa Lewis and Brenda McKinley looked beautiful in their after five attire representing the epitome of Finer Womanhood. Sorors Kim Sawyer and Jackie McNair were recognized as the Past First National Vice President and Maryland State Director, respectively. Soror Brenda McKinley was recognized as a Past President of Alpha Zeta Chapter with a roaring cheer from her fellow chapter members. In the true light of Sisterhood, Tau Eta Zeta shared a table, enjoyed a delicious meal and had a wonderful fellowship with Delta Zeta Zeta, Lambda Gamma Zeta and Tau Delta Zeta Chapters. The evening culminated with dancing to a phenomenal live band and reminiscing with sorors from other chapters throughout the State of Maryland. It was truly an evening to remember!

Tau Eta Zeta & Tau Delta Zeta Chapters at Dave & Buster's

The beautiful Sorors of Tau Eta Zeta and Tau Delta Zeta Chapters joined together for food, fun and a fabulous time at Dave & Busters on Sunday, September 28, 2008. Sorors were able to meet new sorors, share funny stories, cheer for their favorite football team and have a phenomenal sister bonding experience. This is and was a true representation of what Sisterhood is all about. Not only does Tau Eta Zeta and Tau Delta Zeta Chapters portray the precepts of our beloved sorority, we also demonstrate the concept by hosting wonderful bonding activities such as the Brunch @ Busters.

While we do spend time with our Zeta Sorors, Tau Eta Zeta Chapter makes time to support the brothers of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. as well.

Tau Eta Zeta hosts and attends events in conjunction with Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. on a regular basis. This is to cultivate sisterly & brotherly love that makes the Sigma/Zeta bond such a unique one. Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. & Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. are the only organizations of the National Pan-Hellenic Council that are constitutionally bound. The Brothers of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. Zeta Sigma chapter welcome sorors to join them for tailgating at every Morgan State University Home game!! Zeta Spotlight

October's Zeta Spotlight has landed on Soror Keisha La'Trice Bownes. Soror Bownes is a native Baltimorean & Towson Alumni. She has a Bachelor's degree in Sociology, Anthropology & Criminal Justice & works at Towson University in the counseling center.

Though Soror Bownes is a quiet behind the scene person, she enjoys serving the community and working with youth. Her desired to become a Zeta was due to the positive interactions with members of Tau Eta Zeta Chapter. She was initiated into Tau Eta Zeta Chapter in Spring of 2007.

Her future plans include working in higher education and having some of her poetic works published.
