

Phenomenally Yours

"Tis the Season to be Thankful"

The Old-Time Christmas Carol chimes "Tis the Season to be Jolly", well I challenge you to replace the word "Jolly" with "Thankful". It is often at times like these, we begin to think on what to buy and where to shop. Now is the time that we should be thankful for the opportunity to share with our loved ones. It is also the time to be thankful that we are in a position to buy gifts and send cards. We sometimes forget the small blessings such as buying a 37 cent stamp or purchasing a can of cranberry sauce. Although that is a small insignificant item, there are many who wish they have the extra funds to do so. So I implore you as you think about the Big Christmas feast and exchanging gifts, be sure to thank God for allowing you this opportunity to bless someone else.

Sisterly, Tamara

Luv's and Doves

Many a good man has failed because he had his wishbone where his backbone should have been.

Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

Zeta of the Month

Lisa Martina Nixon became a Zeta on February 21st, 1993 at Hampton University in Hampton, Virginia - Rho Alpha Chapter. Prior to being a Zeta she was an Archonette (87-90) under the guidance of Beta Psi Zeta Chapter in Omaha, Nebraska. During her 10 years as a Zeta she has served as the undergraduate Basileus, Sergeant-at-Arms, Anti-Tamias-Grammateus and Special Assistant to the State Director (1996-2000) and Regional Founders' Day Chairperson. She is currently the State and local Tamias-Grammateus as well as the State Undergraduate Coordinator.

She graduated in 1994 with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science. She is currently employed by the State of Maryland as a Parole and Probation Agent. Her future career goals are to be a Federal Probation Agent.

Things you may or may not know about Lisa are: her favorite color is blue, her favorite number is 18 and favorite month is April. She collects African-American hardback fiction books and shot glasses. She is currently single

With no children.
Her hobbies include going to the movies, traveling, talking on the phone, bowling, playing cards and board games and hanging with friends.

She loves being a member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. and is excited about the growth of Tau Eta Zeta Chapter.

Much blue love,
Hyacinth Walker
1st Anti-Basileus
