

The B-More Zeta Times

Tau Eta Zeta's Introduction Social

On Sunday, September 28, 2003, Tau Eta Zeta Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. will host an Introduction Social at the Baltimore Rowing Club from 4:00 - 6:00 p.m.

☞ Dress in UNINTERRUPTED WHITE

☞ Assist with cleaning up

The purpose of the Introduction Social is to introduce the chapter to various organizations in the Baltimore Community. Invitations have been forwarded to the International Grand Basileus, Atlantic Regional Director, Maryland State Director, Mayor Martin O'Malley and various dignitaries within the city of Baltimore.

Each soror is asked to invite their family, friends and business associates. In addition, this event will be successful providing that each soror fully participates. Each soror is asked to do the following:

- ☞ Pay the $115.00 contribution
- ☞ Arrive at the Rowing Club by 3:00 p.m.

Anyone who is in need of invitations or additional, should contact Soror Dawn M. Barnes at 410.496.5353 or Soror Yolanda M. Jackson at 410.866.3470.

Let's work to make this a successful and memorable event.

Luv's and Doves

An Encouraging Word from the Chapter Chaplain

Every person should have a special cemetery lot in which to bury faults of friends and loved ones.

~ And be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. ~
Ephesians 4:32

Phenomenally Yours

A message from the Basileus.

“Beauty is in the eye of the beholder.”

Have you ever considered the question, “How can my words be beautiful?” Proverbs 25:11 reads—“Timely advice is as lovely as golden apples in a silver basket.” Which can be interpreted as: Beautiful words are the fruit of godly thoughts and character. As we each raised our right hands and recited our pledge we all quoted the following with conviction and sincerity:

...Should I be guilty of wrong doing unconsciously, I will willingly accept corrections given me by my sisters. I will strive at all times to exhibit my highest ideals of culture, to put forth zeal for those things which stand for righteousness, and hold within my heart a love which will unite us as one...

Soror, I submit to you that words are very powerful weapons and I implore you to always season your words with grace.

Words can be used positively to pay a compliment, offer great advice, inspire and motivate those in need and uplift or encourage those who are down. Sometimes an unexpected kind word can make a significant difference in ones life.

As we began our journey as a new chapter, I ask each of you to do the following:

1. Be respectful when speaking to one another;
2. Be honest and maintain integrity;
3. Most importantly, do not allow disagreements during the meetings to fester, grow and destroy what we are working hard to build.

In conclusion, take comfort in this promise of God which can be found in Galatians 6:9—“Don’t get tired of doing what is good. Don’t get discouraged and give up, for we will reap a harvest of blessing at the appropriate time.”
